

HUAWEI is a leading global provider of information and communications technology (ICT) infrastructure and smart devices. Founded in 1987, it operates in over 170 countries, serving more than three billion people. Committed to innovation, sustainability, and quality, HUAWEI drives digital transformation and builds a fully connected, intelligent world.